Case No. C 05-03649 JW PVT

Hon. James W. Ware

19 Plaintiffs,
v.
20 GOOGLE, INC.,
21 Defendant.

CLRB HANSON INDUSTRIES, LLC'S RESPONSES AND OBJECTIONS TO
DEFENDANT GOOGLE INC.'S
INTERROGATORIES
(SET ONE)

1 Pursuant to Rules 26 and 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff CLRB
2 Hanson Industries, LLC ("Plaintiff"), by and through its attorneys, hereby responds to Defendant
3 Google Inc.'s Interrogatories to Plaintiff CLRB Hanson Industries, LLC (Set One) (the 4 "Interrogatories") as follows:

5 GENERAL OBJECTIONS

6 Plaintiff generally objects to the Interrogatories on the following grounds, each of which 7 is incorporated by reference in the responses to the individual Interrogatories below. All
8 responses set forth herein are subject to and without waiver of any of these General Objections.

9 1. Plaintiff objects to these Interrogatories to the extent they seek the information that is 10 protected by various privileges and protections, including the attorney-client privilege, the work
11 product doctrine, and any other legally recognized privilege and/or protection. By responding to 12 any Interrogatory, Plaintiff does not waive the attorney-client privilege, the work product
13 doctrine, or any other applicable privilege as to that interrogatory or as to any other future
14 interrogatory.

15 2. Plaintiff objects to these Interrogatories to the extent they seek answers beyond the 16 scope permitted by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules of the United States
17 District Court for the Northern District of California (the "Local Rules").

18 3. Plaintiff objects to these Interrogatories to the extent that, when read with the 19 definitions and instructions, they seek to impose discovery obligations on Plaintiff broader than,
20 or inconsistent with, those set forth in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Local Rules, or 21 other law.

22 4. Plaintiff objects to the Interrogatories to the extent that they impose upon Plaintiff a
23 duty to seek out information which is not in its personal possession, custody or control.

5. Plaintiff objects to the Interrogatories to the extent that they seek financial non-relevant confidential information.

6. Plaintiff objects to the Interrogatories to the extent that they seek documents or information that has already been provided to defendant, is otherwise in defendant's possession, custody or control, or is otherwise publicly available.

7. Plaintiff objects to the Interrogatories on the grounds that much of the information demanded by these Interrogatories is already on record or has already been produced. It is burdensome and oppressive to require Plaintiff to duplicate effort to respond to these same questions.

8. Plaintiff objects to these Interrogatories to the extent they are vague, ambiguous, or incomprehensible and, therefore, require Plaintiff to engage in conjecture as to their meaning.

9. Plaintiff objects to these Interrogatories to the extent that the information sought by the defendant is contained in documents that are already in defendant's possession, custody, or control, or is equally available to defendant, on the grounds that such requests are unreasonably cumulative and duplicative, and that the information is obtainable from a source that is more convenient, less burdensome, and less expensive.

10. Plaintiff objects to these Interrogatories to the extent that they are not related to the time period and subject matter at issue in this litigation.

11. Plaintiff objects to these Interrogatories to the extent they are unduly burdensome, overbroad, or seek information that is not relevant to any of the claims or defenses of any of the parties.

12. Plaintiff objects to the Interrogatories to the extent they require Plaintiff to make legal conclusions or apply law to facts.

2 13. Plaintiff objects to these Interrogatories to the extent they fail to state with sufficient
3 particularity the information and categories of information to be provided.

6 14. Plaintiff objects to these Interrogatories on the grounds that they do not provide a
7 relevant time period.

10 15. Plaintiff objects to these Interrogatories to the extent they seek information more
11 appropriate for expert testimony.

14 16. Plaintiff objects to the Interrogatories to the extent that they seek information relating 15 to Plaintiff's contentions on the grounds that they are improper, premature, seek information that 16 is beyond the scope of permissible discovery at this stage of the litigation, and ask Plaintiff to 17 provide, under oath, information or contentions not within Plaintiff's personal knowledge.
18 Additionally, contentions may be subject to change during the course of the litigation. Such 19 contention interrogatories are therefore premature.
20

22 17. Plaintiff objects to Definition "YOU" and "YOUR" of the Interrogatories as 23 overbroad, vague and ambiguous. Plaintiff will interpret the terms "YOU" and "YOUR" to mean
24 CLRB Hanson Industries, LLC, and its representatives, employees and officers.

26
27 18. Plaintiff objects to Definition "CONTRACT" of the Interrogatories as overbroad,
28 vague and ambiguous.
29

30 19. Plaintiff objects to Definition "RESELLER" as overbroad, vague and ambiguous.
31

32
33 20. Plaintiff's responses are based upon, and therefore limited by, records and information
34 still in existence, presently recollected and thus far discovered in the course of preparing these 35 responses. Consequently, Plaintiff reserves the right to revise or supplement these responses, only 36 to the extent required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, if it appears that, at any time,
37 inadvertent errors or omissions have been made or additional or more accurate information
38 becomes available.

2 21. The production of any information when the production of such information is 3 objected to herein shall not constitute a waiver of any applicable objection and is without 4 prejudice to Plaintiff's right to object later that the production of any such information was 5 inadvertent.

7 22. No incidental or implied admissions are intended in these responses. Plaintiff's
8 response to all or any part of any Interrogatory should not be taken as an admission that: (a)
9 Plaintiff accepts or admits the existence of any fact(s) set forth or assumed by the Interrogatory;
10 or (b) Plaintiff's response constitutes admissible evidence. Plaintiff's response to all or any part
11 of an Interrogatory also is not intended to be, and shall not be, a waiver by Plaintiff of all or any 12 part of its objection(s) to that Interrogatory.

14 23. Plaintiff's response to these interrogatories shall not be construed as an admission of 15 relevance, materiality, or admissibility of such information or the subject matter of such 16 information, or as a waiver or abridgement of any applicable privilege or of any applicable
17 objection set forth above or below. Plaintiff reserves the right to object to the admissibility in 18 evidence of any part of the responses to the Interrogatories.

19
20 24. Plaintiff's General Objections are hereby incorporated in each and every response set 21 forth below, regardless of whether such objections are repeated as to each individual definition or 22 instruction to which they are applicable. By stating specific objections in response to a request,
23 Plaintiff does not waive any of the objections incorporated herein.

24
25 INTERROGATORIES

26
27 By setting forth specific objections, Plaintiff does not intend to limit or restrict the General
28 Objections. Plaintiff incorporates the General Objections into Plaintiff's responses to each of the 29 Interrogatories.

2 INTERROGATORY NO. 1:

3 State all facts that support YOUR claim that YOU sustained damages or other injury as a
4 result of any conduct and/or omission of GOOGLE.

5 RESPONSE:

6 Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it seeks information that is
7 already on the record, has already been produced, or is already available to Google. It is
8 burdensome and oppressive to require Plaintiff to state "all facts."

9 Subject to the general and specific objections, Plaintiff states that Google represented that 10 Plaintiff could establish a daily budget for its AdWords campaigns. However, Google charged 11 more than the daily budget that Plaintiff set for its AdWords campaigns.

12 INTERROGATORY NO. 2:

13 State the amount of monetary damages YOU claim that YOU sustained as a result of any 14 conduct and/or omission of GOOGLE.

15 RESPONSE:

16 Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it seeks information that is
17 already on the record, has already been produced, or is already available to Google. It is
18 burdensome and oppressive to require Plaintiff to duplicate effort to respond to this question.

19 Subject to the general and specific objections, Plaintiff states that the amount of monetary
20 damages it sustained are the amounts that Google charged Plaintiff over its daily budget.
21 Google's records contain Plaintiff's daily budget and the amount in excess of the daily budget
22 Google charged it.

23 INTERROGATORY NO. 3:

24 Describe in detail how YOU calculated the amount of pecuniary damages YOU claim that 25 YOU sustained as a result of any conduct and/or omission of GOOGLE.

1 RESPONSE:

2 See response to Interrogatory No. 2.

3 INTERROGATORY NO. 4:

4 Identify the date on which YOU first realized that GOOGLE was periodically charging
5 YOU in excess of 100% of your AdWords daily budget on certain days.

6 RESPONSE:

7 Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it is overbroad, vague and
8 ambiguous. Plaintiff also objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it seeks information
9 that is already on the record, has already been produced, or is already available to Google.

10 Subject to the general and specific objections, Plaintiff's best recollection is that in 11 approximately the second quarter of 2004 Plaintiff observed that Google was periodically
12 charging more than the daily budget.

13 INTERROGATORY NO. 5:

14 Identify the date on which YOU first realized that it is GOOGLE's policy that, on any 15 single day, the AdWords system may deliver up to 20% more ads than YOUR daily budget calls
16 for to help to make up for other days in which your daily budget is not reached.

17 RESPONSE:

18 Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it is overbroad, vague and 19 ambiguous. Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it seeks information that is 20 already on the record, has already been produced, or is already available to Google.

21 See response to Interrogatory No. 4 above. In addition, subject to the general and specific 22 objections, Plaintiff at various times from the 2nd quarter of 2004 to the 2nd quarter of 2005,
23 sought a satisfactory explanation from Google as to the overcharges. At times Plaintiff was told
24 that it would be credited for overdelivery. When Plaintiff realized that Google was not going to 25 credit it for overdelivery, it sought legal assistance and commenced a lawsuit in August 2005.

2 INTERROGATORY NO. 6:

3 State the reason(s), including all supporting facts, why YOU continued to use GOOGLE's
4 AdWords program even after YOU realized that GOOGLE was periodically charging you in 5 excess of 100% of your Adwords daily budget on certain days.

7 RESPONSE:

8 Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it is overbroad, vague,
9 ambiguous, and is neither relevant to the subject matter of this action, nor any claim or defense of 10 any party, nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Plaintiff
11 also objects to this Interrogatory on the ground that it is burdensome and oppressive to require
12 Plaintiff to state "all supporting facts."

13 Subject to general and specific objections, Plaintiff states that after Brett Hanson realized
14 that Google periodically charged more than Plaintiff's daily budget, he believed that Google's
15 charges were in error and that Plaintiff would ultimately obtain credits from Google. After 16 Plaintiff realized that Google's policy was to regularly overcharge its customers and that Google
17 was not going to refund the excess amount, Plaintiff continued to use AdWords, while seeking 18 damages from Google, because Google was the dominant player in the online advertising market, 19 and did not charge a minimum fee.

21 INTERROGATORY NO. 7:

22 Identify with specificity the pecuniary damage(s) YOU claim YOU suffered as a result of 23 GOOGLE delivering clicks in excess of 100% of YOUR AdWords daily budget.

25 RESPONSE:

26 Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it seeks information that is already on the record, has already been produced, or is already available to Google. It is burdensome and oppressive to require Plaintiff to duplicate effort to respond to this question.

27 Subject to the general and specific objections, Plaintiff states that the amount of pecuniary

1 damages it suffered are the amounts that Google charged Plaintiff over its daily budget, together
2 with interest. Google's records contain Plaintiff's daily budget and the amount in excess of the 3 daily budget Google charged it.

5 INTERROGATORY NO. 8:

6 Identify with specificity any business opportunity YOU claim YOU lost as a result of 7 GOOGLE delivering clicks in excess of 100% of YOUR daily budget, including without limitation the identity of the potential or existing customer involved and the date of the loss.

9 RESPONSE:

10 Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it is overbroad, unduly 11 burdensome, vague, ambiguous, and is not relevant to the subject matter of this action, nor 12 reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.
13

14 Subject to and notwithstanding these objections and the general objections stated above,
15 Plaintiff responds that it is not claiming damages for lost business opportunities.

17 INTERROGATORY NO. 9:

18 For those days on which YOU claim that GOOGLE delivered clicks over 100% of YOUR 19 daily budget, please identify each day which YOU claim YOU could not meet the demand
20 resulting from the over-delivery of clicks, and all facts in support of your contention.

22 RESPONSE:

23 Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it is overbroad, vague,
24 ambiguous, and is neither relevant to the subject matter of this action, nor reasonably calculated
25 to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Plaintiff also objects to this Interrogatory on the 26 ground that it is burdensome and oppressive to require Plaintiff to identify "all facts."
27

28 Subject to the general and specific objections, Plaintiff responds that it cannot recollect any days on which it could not meet the demand resulting from over-delivery clicks.
29
30

2 INTERROGATORY NO. 10:

3 Identify all efforts YOU took, including all supporting facts, to mitigate the damages
4 YOU claim YOU suffered as a result of GOOGLE's conduct as alleged by YOU in the 5 COMPLAINT.

6 RESPONSE:

7 Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it is overbroad, unduly
8 burdensome, vague, ambiguous, and seeks information that is already on the record, has already
9 been produced, or is already available to Google. It is burdensome and oppressive to require
10 Plaintiff to duplicate effort to respond to this question and identify "all supporting facts."
11 Plaintiff also objects to this Interrogatory as it requires Plaintiff to make legal conclusions and 12 apply law to facts.

13 Subject to the general and specific objections, Plaintiff responds that Plaintiff sought a 14 satisfactory resolution from Google as to the overcharges. At times Plaintiff was told by Google
15 that it would be credited for overdelivery. When Plaintiff realized that Google was not going to 16 credit it for overdelivery, it sought legal assistance and commenced a lawsuit in August 2005 for 17 damages and injunctive relief.

18 INTERROGATORY NO. 11:

19 Identify each case, including the case name, case number, the parties involved, and the 20 name of the court, in connection with which YOU have ever been deposed.

21 RESPONSE:

22 Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it is overbroad and unduly
23 burdensome. This Interrogatory is also neither relevant to the subject matter of this action, nor 24 any claim or defense of any party, nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible 25 evidence.

26 Subject to the general and specific objections, to the best of Plaintiff's knowledge, no

1 officer, director, or representative of Plaintiff has ever been deposed (other than in this action) on
2 behalf of the Company.

3 INTERROGATORY NO. 12:

4 State the reason(s), including all supporting facts, why YOU have in the past paused
5 and/or unpause YOUR ads with GOOGLE's AdWords program.

6 RESPONSE:

7 Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it is overbroad. This
8 Interrogatory is also neither relevant to the subject matter of this action, nor any claim or defense
9 of any party, nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Plaintiff
10 also objects to this Interrogatory on the ground that it is burdensome and oppressive to require
11 Plaintiff to state "all supporting facts."

12 Subject to general and specific objections, Plaintiff states that it regularly paused ad
13 campaigns because it did not desire any click throughs at that time, based, inter alia, upon costs 14 associated with orders or flow leads, lack of capacity at plants, and targeted returns on 15 investments. Other factors considered include the click-through rate, and the costs of the 16 AdWords campaign. Plaintiff also paused campaigns on nights and holidays.

17 INTERROGATORY NO. 13:

18 For each day on which the charges for any of YOUR ad campaigns exceeded the amount 19 set as YOUR daily budget for the ad campaign, please describe in detail, including all supporting facts, the reason(s) why YOU did not pause YOUR campaign.

20 RESPONSE:

21 Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it is overbroad, vague and 22 ambiguous. This Interrogatory is also neither relevant to the subject matter of this action, nor 23 reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Plaintiff also objects to 24 this Interrogatory on the ground that it is burdensome and oppressive to require Plaintiff to

1 describe in detail "all supporting facts."

3 Subject to general and specific objections, Plaintiff states that it did not pause advertising
4 campaigns when charges exceeded the daily budget each day for a variety of reasons, including
5 the following: Plaintiff may not have known until after the fact that it was receiving clicks that 6 would cost more than its daily budget because it was unaware of Google's overdelivery policy;
7 Plaintiff may not have had access to its AdWords account at the time that its daily budget was 8 exceeded and therefore may not have known about the excess clicks; Plaintiff believed that it
9 would not be charged for any overdelivery; and Plaintiff did not know until it received its 10 monthly bill which clicks in excess of Plaintiff's daily budget would result in actual charges to its 11 account.

12 INTERROGATORY NO. 14:

13 Identify any training concerning AdWords, including without limitation any tutorials,
14 YOU received from any PERSON, including the date of the training and the identity of the 15 PERSON providing the training.

16 RESPONSE:

17 Subject to the general and specific objections, Plaintiff, to the extent it understands the 18 interrogatory, did not receive any training or tutorials concerning AdWords.

19 INTERROGATORY NO. 15:

20 If YOU contend that YOU have standing to sue GOOGLE under California Business &
21 Professions Code section 17200, et seq. and/or 17500, et seq., please state all facts supporting 22 YOUR contention.

23 RESPONSE:

24 Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it is overbroad and unduly
25 burdensome and seeks information that is already on the record or has already been produced. It
26 is burdensome and oppressive to require Plaintiff to duplicate effort to respond to this question and state "all facts." Plaintiff also objects to this Interrogatory as it requires Plaintiff to make

1 legal conclusions.

3 INTERROGATORY NO. 16:

4 Please describe in detail the role and duties of each PERSON who was involved with any of YOUR AdWords advertisements.

5 RESPONSE:

6 Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous.
7 Subject to the general and specific objections, Plaintiff states that Brett Hanson, who was hired by 8 Plaintiff as an independent consultant, was the only person involved with Plaintiff's AdWords
9 advertisements.

10 INTERROGATORY NO. 17:

11 Identify each and every portion of YOUR CONTRACT with GOOGLE that YOU
12 contend is void or voidable, and all facts supporting YOUR contention.

13 RESPONSE:

14 Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it is overbroad, unduly
15 burdensome, vague, ambiguous, and seeks information that is already on the record, has already
16 been produced, or is already available to Google. It is burdensome and oppressive to require
17 Plaintiff to duplicate effort to respond to this question and to identify "all facts." Plaintiff also 18 objects to this Interrogatory as it requires Plaintiff to make legal conclusions and apply law to 19 facts.

20 Subject to general and specific objections, Plaintiff states that the portions of the Contract
21 relied upon by defendant as providing authority to charge Plaintiff more than its daily budget on

22 any given day is voidable and otherwise unenforceable given Google's material 23 misrepresentations that advertisers may pause their ad without being charged for those days, and 24 that advertisers would not be billed more than their daily budget for those days that their ad runs.
25 The material misrepresentations were, and are, contrary to Google's billing practices.

2 INTERROGATORY NO. 18:

4 For each AdWords ad campaign which YOU created, edited, or managed on behalf of any
5 PERSONS other than CLRB Hanson, LLC, identify the ad campaign, the related account name,
6 the account number under which the campaign was created, the identity of the PERSON on 7 whose behalf it was created, and the PERSON who paid for the campaign.

9 RESPONSE:

10 Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it is overbroad, vague,
11 ambiguous, not reasonably calculated to lead to admissible evidence. It is unduly burdensome,
12 seeks information that is already on the record, has already been produced, or is already available
13 to Google.

14 Subject to the general and specific objections, Plaintiff states that Brett Hanson created,
15 edited, or managed AdWords ad campaigns as a consultant for SECOA Inc. and Hanson
16 Industries.

18 INTERROGATORY NO. 19:

19 If YOUR response to request for admission number 9 served with these interrogatories is 20 anything other than an unqualified admission, state all facts upon which YOU based YOUR
21 response.

23 RESPONSE:

24 In addition to the general objections, Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds
25 that it is overbroad, vague, ambiguous, and is neither relevant to the subject matter of this action, 26 nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Plaintiff also objects that the Interrogatory is unduly burdensome as it requires Plaintiff to state "all facts." Plaintiff also objects to this Interrogatory as it requires Plaintiff to make legal conclusions and apply law to facts.

Subject to and without waiver of any objection, Plaintiff denied request for admission number 9 because it called for a legal conclusion and because the definition of "reseller" is

1 overbroad, vague, and ambiguous.

2 INTERROGATORY NO. 20:

3 If YOUR response to request for admission number 10 served with these interrogatories is 4 anything other than unqualified admission, state all facts upon which YOU based YOUR
5 response.

6 RESPONSE:

7 Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it is overbroad and unduly
8 burdensome as it requires Plaintiff to state "all facts." Plaintiff also objects to this Interrogatory
9 as it requires Plaintiff to make legal conclusions and apply law to facts.

10 Subject to the specific and general objections, Plaintiff denied request for admission
11 number 10 because it called for a legal conclusion and because the definition of "reseller" is
12 overbroad, vague, and ambiguous.

13 INTERROGATORY NO. 21:

14 If YOUR response to request for admission number 11 served with these interrogatories is 15 anything other than an unqualified admission, state all facts upon which YOU based YOUR
16 response.

17 RESPONSE:

18 Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory as overbroad, unduly burdensome, vague,
19 ambiguous, irrelevant and not reasonably calculated to lead to discovery of admissible evidence.
20 Plaintiff further objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it is overbroad and unduly
21 burdensome as it requires Plaintiff to state "all facts."

22 Subject to the specific and general objections, Plaintiff, to the best of its understanding of 23 request for admission number 11, admitted that request.

PROOF OF SERVICE

I, the undersigned, declare:

I am employed in the County of Los Angeles, State of California. I am over the age of 18 and not a party to the within action; my business address is 1901 Avenue of the Stars, Suite 950, Los Angeles, California 90067-6029.

On September 29, 2008, I served the foregoing document(s) described as follows:

CLRB HANSON INDUSTRIES, LLC'S RESPONSES AND OBJECTIONS TO DEFENDANT GOOGLE INC.'S INTERROGATORIES
(SET ONE)

on the interested parties in this action by placing true copies thereof enclosed in sealed envelopes addressed as stated on the attached service list, as follows:

XX BY MAIL:

I am "readily familiar" with the firm's practice of collection and processing correspondence for mailing. Under that practice, it would be deposited with the U.S. Postal Service on that same day with postage thereon fully prepaid at Los Angeles, California in the ordinary course of business. I am aware that on motion of the party served, service is presumed invalid if postal cancellation date or postage meter date is more than one day after date of deposit for mailing in affidavit.

BY PERSONAL SERVICE:

I caused to be delivered such envelope by hand to the offices of the addressee.

BY FEDERAL EXPRESS OR OVERNIGHT COURIER

BY TELECOPIER

I served by facsimile as indicated on the attached service list.

XX BY ELECTRONIC MAIL

I caused said documents to be prepared in portable document format (PDF) for e-mailing and served by electronic mail as indicated on the attached service list.

Executed on September 29, 2008, at Los Angeles, California.

____ (State) I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the above is true and correct.
